

ARLINGTON BRANCH REPORT AAUW OF VIRGINIA

September, 2016
Volume 73, Issue 1

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Summer is over, kids are back to school and it's a new year for AAUW as well! New beginnings, new opportunities and new challenges! We are so fortunate to have many wonderful, hard-working folks at our Arlington branch and there has been much thought and effort put into making the 2016-2017 year a valuable and meaningful one for us. Mary Van Dyke and Mary Beth Pelosky have created a schedule of programs that will include a focus on Muslim women, help us understand what is looming in the future from our elected officials and provide an opportunity to discuss women's leadership.

Cece Michelotti has taken over the newsletter position from Barbara Olivero, who has done a great job for a number of years, and her first edition is terrific! We are also fortunate to add Mary Garrison to our board as the new secretary (thanks to Susan Senn for her stint in the position too!) and we appreciate Mary's willingness to take this on!

While we're mentioning our appreciation, please remember Mattie Walker who passed recently and who was instrumental in several aspects of AAUW over her many years of service.

Marcy and I are excited about a number of opportunities that are emerging as we look around us right here in Arlington at a number of organizations and groups with whom we might collaborate and coordinate efforts on issues where we share an interest and commitment. When we celebrated Susan Senn's recognition at the Women of Vision awards given by the Arlington Commission on the Status of Women, we engaged in some interesting dialogue about ways both organizations might work together on specific issues in the future.

The League of Women Voters is seeking help in staffing a series of voter registrations at condos in Arlington and that is certainly something our members could do – look for contact info in the volunteer section of this newsletter! We will be keeping our eyes open for more opportunities for sharing efforts on issues important to us all!

As we begin our new year, we encourage you to think of friends and colleagues who might be interested in joining us and invite them to one of our upcoming programs. AAUW has much to offer women interested in the fair and equal treatment of all and the role women will play in the future of our society. Together, the world is better!

Meg Tuccillo

Membership News

LUNCH BUNCH

The Arlington Branch AAUW members have been volunteering at the Arlington Mill High School for over 25 years. The school's name and location has been changed starting this past summer. It is now called the Arlington Community High School and is located at 800 S. Walter Reed Drive in Arlington. It is directly across the parking driveway from the Arlington Career Center.

The school serves students from diverse cultural backgrounds, all working on earning their high school diplomas. Our Lunch Bunch offers educational programs to the young women (aged 18 to 30) related to current issues, including health care, careers, finance, sexual harassment, and navigating legal systems.

Once a month from October through May, on the third Thursday, several Arlington Branch members meet at the school about 12:30 p.m.. We provide a lunch of pizza, salad, dessert, and water for about twenty young women during their 40 minute lunch break. During this time, a guest speaker engages the students in a relevant topic of discussion. The volunteers help serve the food and may choose to mentor a student.

If you would like to volunteer for this rewarding group, or be a speaker at one of the lunches, please contact the Coordinators either Mary Ann Ullrich or Michele Milden. We look forward to seeing you at one of our Lunch Bunch programs this year. Check the online newsletters for specific times and dates.

LOBBY CORPS

Join AAUW Lobby Corps! An Exciting Opportunity to Represent AAUW on Capitol Hill.

LOBBY CORPS Fall Open House is tentatively scheduled for Wed., Sept. 7. Come and see what we are about.

What is Lobby Corps? The AAUW Action Fund Capitol Hill Lobby Corps is local AAUW members who promote AAUW's Public Policy Program by serving as volunteer advocates on Capitol Hill.

Members represent the views and positions outlined in the AAUW member approved Public Policy Program.

Lobby Corps meets on Thursday mornings when Congress is in session, usually at 9:30 am, in either the Senate or House office buildings, as determined by AAUW staff each week. (Congress is in session about 30 weeks each year, taking breaks for holidays, summer, and campaigning.) Lobbying visits are usually completed by noon. Members come from Virginia and Maryland branches across the region. Most members use Metro to reach Capitol Hill.

Lobby Corps volunteers must:

1. Be an active member of AAUW

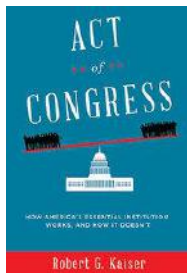

2. Commit to AAUW issues and convey AAUW's position on strategic policy issues
3. Commit to regular participation, with consistent weekly attendance.
4. Attend an annual Lobby Corps Open House/ Training session at AAUW Headquarters. (Date not yet announced.)

Here's how the Lobbying process works:

By Tuesday of each lobbying week, the AAUW Government Relations Staff Liaison notifies members of the weekly topic and provides background information.

By Wednesday evening, members receive detailed email information on the issue and current status.

On Thursday morning, Lobby Corps meets in the House or Senate cafeteria to review information, receive AAUW letters and fact sheets, and specific lobbying targets. After the group briefing, Lobbying pairs head off to their five or six office visits, usually finishing by noon. Members report the results of their visits to the AAUW Staff Liaison via an online web service.

You'll be well prepared before every Congressional visit and will always have an experienced partner. Add your AAUW voice to ongoing national conversations in person. Lobby Corps membership is a painless way to get in-depth knowledge on current issues for Washington area members, plus it's a fun activity.

Lobby Corps needs you! Please consider joining us this fall.

The second Wednesday, Sept 14 at 2 pm at the home of Dorothy Miller, 1016 S Wayne Street., Apt 903, 703-920-1279 , damiller903 at verizon.net and the fourth Tuesday, Sept 27 at 2 pm at the home of Marjorie Hobart, 239 N Barton St., 703-527-4647, marjhobart at aol.com

The book group meets the second Wednesday and the fourth Tuesday of each month from 2:00 to 4:00 pm at the homes of members for dessert and coffee and a discussion of the selected book. Both groups read the same title. In December we have a joint potluck dinner meeting. Our July meeting is also an evening joint session of both groups where we select titles for the coming year. We never seem to lack for discussion. Titles on the list for 2016 through July 2017 include:

Sept	The Bully Pulpit	Doris Kerns Goodwin

AAUW Bridge Group

On Saturday, May 14, the AAUW sponsored Bridge Group held its Spring Luncheon at the home of Penny DeFillippi to celebrate finishing this year's round of games. There were 14 players on teams of two each.

Each team played each of the other teams one time during the year (September – April). Scores were tallied and sent to Jill Nusbaum, our organizer, who declared the overall team winners at the luncheon. At the beginning of the year (September, 2015), we had decided to simply leave it up to the teams to plan when to play the games rather than assign team play once a month as in previous years. This gave us greater flexibility in our planning and in our ability to play all six games.

Cathy Bare and Sylvia Daneel were our top team members.

We are always looking for more players. Each member of the Bridge Group contributes $20 to the Arlington AAUW Fund at the beginning of each playing year. If you are interested in joining this year's round of games, please contact Susan Senn at sennsu at verizon.net or by phone, 703-243-0913 or cell 703-244-0175.

Help Wanted Ads

WANTED: Arlington League of Women Voters Volunteers

The League is staffing a series of voter registrations at Arlington condos this fall and are seeking condos willing to host a voter registration event and are also seeking volunteers to help. Don Gurney is coordinating this effort and can be contacted at donwren at comcast.net.

WANTED: A Public Policy Chair for Arlington Branch AAUW

This person will advocate for AAUW's priorities to policy makers, represent AAUW's public policy priorities to elected officials and keep members updated on advocacy efforts. Please let Marcy or Meg know if you are interested.

WANTED: Additional Lunch Bunch Volunteers

Michele Milden and Maryann Ullrich are doing a fabulous job in supporting young women in the Arlington Mill Program (now called The Arlington Community High School). A small core of volunteers have been committed to the program but we can use additional AAUW members to help this important work. Please contact Michele or Maryann if you are interested!

WANTED: Membership Committee Members

Membership VP (that's Carol Dabbs now that Betty Dunn is Treasurer) seeks Arlington AAUW members to conceptualize ideas for membership retention and to attract new members to the branch. Opportunities for imaginative outreach and support to members. Please contact carol_dabbs at yahoo.com for more specifics.

WANTED: AAUW dues for 2016-2017

More than half of our members have now paid their dues. If you have not paid, be sure to send your dues by November 2016 so that your name will appear in the directory. If you are not sure, check the AAUW web site or contact betty.dunn3 at verizon.net. Dues (national, state, and branch) are $80, of which $46 is a tax-deductible contribution to a 4-star charity which works to advance the education of women. Thanks in advance.

Betty Dunn, Treasurer

Let's get Acquainted ***

Hello. My name is Mary Tokuno-Garrison. I am the new secretary of the AAUW Arlington Branch. This position appealed to me because I believe it is important to maintain a record of board meeting discussions, plans and outcomes and to provide this information to our members. I became acquainted with AAUW when I attended an AAUW workshop for college students at NVCC and when my daughter participated in a STEM event in middle school.

I was impressed by AAUW's proactive and well-organized approach to improving the social, economic and political status and conditions of women. As an RN, I have been involved in advocating for progress in women's health and education. I am very pleased to be a part of such an excellent organization and look forward to serving as secretary.

Hi! I'm Cece Michelotti, your new AAUW Branch Newsletter Editor. I'm not new to the Arlington Branch, just VERY new as newsletter editor, so, please be very patient with me.

I joined the Branch almost 10 years ago and jumped right in serving as Membership VP with Denise Decker. For a couple years I served as one of several volunteer lobbyists on Capitol Hill. Such fun, and quite interesting. I highly recommend it.

I assisted with Lunch Bunch some, and got to know several of the girls. I actually tutored one of them in math for several weeks. For three years I worked with a team of about 10 members plus, organizing and offering three STEM Conferences for many of our young girls in the area.

I write these things down to share with you that this has been a most rewarding time for me and I totally encourage you to think about getting more involved in the Branch activities, if you are not yet involved.

Call me or another of our involved members, to get more information. Several phone numbers are included in this newsletter. CONNECT ! It's a fun adventure.

**ED. NOTE: With your help, I'm hoping we can post some short bios and pictures of some of our newer members in the coming issues.*

Gender Bias in Politics—Is It Real?”

Most of us would say “Yes,” but you might be surprised at the how and when and even the “no.” It’s a timely subject and also fits with AAUW’s latest research on “Bias and Barriers.” We will feature Melissa Richmond, vice president of Running Start (a non-partisan organization that trains young women to run for office), and Melissa Jackowski, campaign services manager for TargetSmart Communications (which provides data-driven solutions to campaigns) and former AAUW Grassroots Advocacy Manager. Both women have incredible backgrounds in politics and electoral campaigns. Watch for more details in early October—and put October 22 on your calendar.
